CHICAGO – Gold Eagle[®] Co. will be presented with the 2008 “Manufacturer of the Year Award” by Representative Michael J. Madigan, Speaker of the House, and Department of Commerce and Economic Opportunity (DCEO) Jack Lavin on October 24.

“Gold Eagle received high scores in all 15 categories used to evaluate potential winners,” said Mary Rose Hennessy, Executive Director of U of I BIS. “Over the past twenty years, we have watched this outstanding company continually adapt to the challenges of the global marketplace through innovation and ethical business practices. They do this with high-level of employee involvement and a keen sense of the customer. Their employee opinion surveys are the best we have ever seen. While others in their industry have left the country or floundered, Gold Eagle flourishes.”

Gold Eagle, headquartered in Chicago and privately held for over 75 years, is a leader in the production and distribution of aftermarket engine-related additives. With over 160 employees, they continue to do all their product development, manufacturing and distribution in 350,000 square feet in Chicago’s industrial hub.

Gold Eagle[®] Co. manufactures leading brands including STA-BIL[®] Fuel Stabilizer, HEET[®] Gas-Line Antifreeze, NO-LEAK[®] Treatments, 104+[®] Octane Boost and 104+[®] Maximum Octane Boost, and DieselPower![®] Diesel Additives.
